

to whom it may concern. i hope u do not take away the do not call list. my family and i can enjoy not choking on our dinner everyday. its a pain to get those phone calls from the telamarketers and they give u a hard time when u try to be nice to get them off the phone. most of them are very rude. i am so pleased we have this do not call list in nj.